OFFICE 29 BROAD ST. ISSUED EVERY FRIDAT AFTERNOON

Local Communications, Advertisements, etc., of Pythias were installed on Tuesday espectfully solicited. A first class medium of local information. It aims to give all the news of local importance, and to discuss all of Newark. An interesting programme subjects fearlessly and importally, giving its readers as full freedom of opinion as it claims for itself, excluding only objectionable shony-mous personal attacks or insinuations, and news or advertisements of doubtful utility. All who appreciate and are willing to sustain a local paper conducted upon these principles are asked to become subscribers.

He was a lightweight—at least he said he could fight at 133 pounds, although he locked and clumsy as a hussex pig. He hadn't been over the water very long, and his h's were omitted and inserted on a system that left no doubt of his origin and ancestry. The fighting game wasn't very good in Chicago when he arrived, and he had to cool his heels in idleness until his eyes had a keen, inquiring look and some of the surplus beef began to disappear from around his waist band.

One night he managed to hypnotize a

The winter weather has been tardy; the stormy weather hasn't come at all. It's put the cloak-makers in a sorry plight -so ae ing to enter either or both of these classes tailers too. The one lever left to all to in Newark. We want to close out as many garments as we can within another week It is to our interest to make lower prices than ever before inventory, and, although the lower priced grades are about exhausted. we will pare down the prices on higher grades and bring them within the reach of those who usually buy the cheaper coats. This will give them a chance to own a high class garment of which they can be proud Those who can pay a medium price can now scorre the richest of the season's novelties at the usual medium grade price.

It behooves every lady in Essex County to
